Chapter 1 by lightningstrikeshannah (I'm back!)

The creepy, old-fashioned, town of Manchester holds a secret.

Mike Barlow had the perfect life working in the city as an actor and living with his girlfriend, May Hemings.

After a long day of work, he decided to drive to his parents home, a few minutes away, to visit.

His mother's car was in the driveway, so he opened the front door and quietly knocked.

"Hello?"

No one answered, so he walked around the house, finding no one. His mother must have been out with his father. He climbed the stairs, curiosity getting the better of him. He wanted to see what his old room looked like.

He reached the top of the stairs. and he noticed the attic stairs were hanging down. That was strange. No one used the attic anymore. The creaky stairs groaned under Mike's weight as he climbed into the sweltering room. One of the boxes were open, so Mike walked over, but the box was empty. But in the dark, a glint of something shiny caught Mike's eyes.

It was a photo.
